

RAYMONDVILLE POLICE DEPARTMENT JOB OPENING

The Raymondville Police Department has a job opening for an Animal Control Officer. Applicants must have a High School Diploma or GED, a valid Texas Driver's License, must pass drug tests, physical, background checks and complete accredited animal control training.

Applicants must be able to lift more than 50 pounds, work nights, weekends, and Holidays as needed and be able to write reports and maintain files. The Animal Control Officer works under the supervision of the Chief of Police.

Benefits include health insurance, retirement, paid holidays and vacation. Applications and full job description may be picked up at the Raymondville Police Department located at 523 W. Hidalgo Ave. Raymondville, Texas.